

Colors of the Stone: Fall Tucson Gem Show Returns to Casino Del Sol

Join us for Colors of the Stone, the premier Fall Tucson Gem Show, from August 29 to September 1 at the exquisite Casino Del Sol Resort. This four-day event showcases over 300 artisans, beadmakers, wholesalers, lapidaries, and tradespeople, offering a unique blend of shopping, workshops, and inspiration.

Discover artisans with decades of expertise and tradespeople who scour the globe for rare gems, beads, and antiquities. The show features an array of treasures including lampwork beads, hand-cut gemstones, antique beads, vintage findings, raku beads, hill tribe silver, antique pearls, and tribal textiles.

Whether you're a professional designer or a hobbyist, Colors of the Stone provides an exclusive opportunity to purchase directly from the source at competitive prices. Explore new products debuting for the first time and participate in artisan workshops covering metalwork, beadwork, mixed media, and more throughout the event.

Nestled in the sun-drenched Sonoran Desert, Casino Del Sol offers the perfect backdrop for this creative gathering. Just minutes from downtown Tucson and the Tucson International Airport, the resort features seven outstanding restaurants, multiple bars, and lounges for your enjoyment.

Join us from August 29 to September 1, Thursday through Sunday, 10am to 6pm daily at Casino Del Sol, 5655 W Valencia Rd, Tucson, AZ. Admission and parking are free, and pre-registering online ensures expedited entry. For more details and updates, visit www.colorsofthestone.com.
